Head of PSHE

Aldworth School

Aldworth School is proud to serve our local area, and we are determined to make a difference to children's lives. We work hard to foster a sense of belonging amongst all members of our community, and we believe in the power of education to 'build brighter futures'.

Aldworth is a continually improving school. The school has been transformed over the last couple of years; outcomes are now stronger and continuing to improve. We are continuing to focus on delivering the best for our community and drive continual improvements to the school.

At Aldworth, we have an ongoing focus on improving the curriculum and delivery of the curriculum through improving teaching. We use 'adaptive teaching' to check understanding throughout the lesson, adapting and re-teaching in response so all learners master key concepts. We are collaborative, and our staff support each other.

Candidates

We are looking for a Head of PSHE, this curriculum leadership role is to lead on all aspects of our PSHE provision, maximising the subject's potential to impact positively on safeguarding, behaviour and personal development, and academic achievement. PSHE lessons are taught by tutors. We are able to accept applications from all subject areas but the ability to teach PE (Female), Design and Technology or Religious Studies would be an advantage.

Current experience is not essential but you must have high aspirations and the determination that all children will succeed, and thrive as part of our community.

Aldworth School is committed to safeguarding young people and we ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All appointments are subject to full safeguarding checks, including an enhanced DBS check. Any candidates selected for interview will be subject to an online search as part of our due diligence checks. The school reserves the right to close the position early on receipt of a strong application, so if you are interested we would urge you to apply sooner rather than later.
